

Alabama Telecommunications Access Program (ATAP)

The Alabama Institute for Deaf and Blind (AIDB) has been granted funding by the Alabama Public Service Commission for ATAP, a statewide TTY, amplified phone, captioned telephone, and voice carry-over phone distribution loan program. Recipients may keep the equipment as long as necessary. The phone can be returned to the office where the application was completed.

An applicant must provide proof that he or she:

- Is a resident of Alabama
- Is at least 8 years old (parent must sign for those under 18)
- Is certified by a healthcare professional as deaf, hard of hearing, speech disabled, or deaf-blind
- Has telephone service in the home; and
- Meets income requirements below

Household Size	Annual Gross Income
1	Less than $24,500
2	Less than $33,000
3	Less than $41,500
4	Less than $50,000
5	Less than $58,500

Equipment must be applied for and picked up at our regional center. Applicants who have received similar equipment from other state or federal agencies are not eligible. For more information or to apply for ATAP, please call the AIDB Regional Center for an appointment.
